 - Special District Services, Inc.- Todd “Woody” Wodraska
They have managed Barefoot Bay in Micco with over 5,000 units for over 12 years. Barefoot Bay has a community manager on site and has about 70 employees. A full-time District Manager is not needed. The community manager answers most questions and concerns of residents. They work on a 12% markup. They offer health insurance to their employees. They can help with bonds and certificates. They can only help with getting grants they can’t write them. They belong to the FL Association of Special Districts and don’t feel a CAM is needed. Their managers are salaried personnel. They work Monday-Friday and are on-call for “Real” emergencies. They are not about policing the district; they do not solve problems. Their employees can help with the website. Their contract is on a continuous basis with a 60-day notice to opt out. Barefoot Bay District Manager is paid by SDS. All other employees are paid by the District of Barefoot Bay. Their District Managers cover 8 to 12 districts per person. If they had a full-time District Manager at Holiday Park the cost would be between $105,000 to $110,000 annually.
